

Amy C. DeYoung, MBA, RRT

Orlando Regional Medical Center (ORMC)

Administrator of Allied Health, Support Services, and

Orlando Health Rehabilitation Institute

Amy has administrative oversight of various inpatient and outpatient department operations at ORMC. She is the administrator for Orlando Health Rehabilitation Institute (OHRI) which includes a 53-bed comprehensive inpatient rehabilitation program at ORMC and two outpatient medical rehabilitation programs in downtown Orlando. She serves as a mentor for Orlando Health's Emerging Leaders program and Advanced Leadership programs. She has experience with quality improvement, leadership development, Lean management systems, healthcare regulatory compliance, and strategic planning.

Amy has worked for Orlando Health for 25-years. She began her career as a respiratory therapist at Lucerne Hospital after graduating from Valencia Community College. After several years in leadership within respiratory care, she was promoted as Administrator of Allied Health and Diagnostic Services at Dr. P. Phillips Hospital. In 2013, she was transferred to ORMC to her current role.

Amy has a B.S. from Barry University and an MBA from Webster University. She has served on the board for the American Lung Association, Valencia Community College Advisory Board, and the Board of Directors for the Adult Literacy League. Her last two years with the Adult Literacy League was as Board President.