

Douglas Woodman

Originally from Winter Park, Florida, Doug graduated from Trinity Preparatory School (1978) and the University of Alabama with a B.S. Degree in Commerce and Business Administration (1982). Mr. Woodman has been in the banking business in Central Florida for the majority of his adult life. He currently serves as Senior Vice President, Commercial Relationship Manager with IBERIABANK in Orlando, Florida. Doug assists businesses of all sizes with a focus on middle market companies and professionals in the medical and dental fields. He prides himself on personalized customer service and consultative delivery of banking solutions for his clients. IBERIABANK was founded in 1887 and entered the Orlando market in March 2015 via the acquisition of New Traditions Bank.

A passion for service and community building has led to many years of involvement in local charitable organizations. Doug is a member of the Heart of the City Foundation Board of Trustees (Treasurer) in Orlando, Florida. He also serves as a Trustee of the Elizabeth Morse Genius Foundation (Investment Committee Chairman) in Winter Park, Florida. Over the years Doug has been involved with or served other entities, such as: Rotary International, Trinity Preparatory School, Florida Citrus Sports Association, Alabama Alumni Association of Central Florida (Past President), Sigma Chi Fraternity, College Park Little League and Edgewater HS Football and Baseball Boosters.

Doug and his wife, Ann, live in College Park and have two sons, Joey and J.B.
