

Michael J. Motko

Motko is Senior Vice President and General Manager for QinetiQ Inc. a wholly owned US subsidiary of QinetiQ Ltd. In this position, Mike is responsible for the leadership and management of day to day operations, program management, business development and capture activities for QinetiQ Inc.'s Orlando, FL based headquarters.

Mike previously has held positions within the modeling and simulation industry of Program Manager, Operations Manager, Director, and Vice President of Business Development for major Department of Defense contractors. Mike has been active in the Interservice/Industry Training, Simulation and Education Conference (I/ITSEC) since 2001 serving as the 2013 Subcommittee Chair for Policy, Standards, Management and Acquisition, and is currently a member of the Training Subcommittee and the Operations Committee.

Mike is currently the President of the Central Florida Council of the Navy League of the United States, a life member of the National Defense Industrial Association, Air Force Association and the National Guard Association of the United States. In addition, his memberships also include the Association of the United States Army and National Training and Simulation Association.

Mike is a retired United States Air Force officer, fighter pilot, Fighter Weapons School Graduate, combat veteran and Squadron Commander with over 7,000 hours of flight time. Mike was elected as a City Councilman for the city of Elk Ridge, UT from 1998 – 2002, and is a graduate of Leadership Orlando class 74.